Sammy Davis Jr. In New Kind Of Dramatic Role

Sammy Davis, Jr., who wrote his own lines, speaks up for the dignity of the Negro in this scene with Ben Gazzara in Allied Artists' "Reprieve," true story of "prison Rembrandt" John Resko (see story).

Hollywood-For the first time | the dignity of his race.

in his career, Sammy Davis, Jr., has played a dramatic role ture, "Reprieve," contains perin which he has completely subreturn he asked for-and gotan opportunity to speak up for looking shade that thooks as natural and life-like as the color you were born with. Try Tintz Creme Color Shampoo today. It's the new easy way that puts in permanent type hair coloring as it shampoos. Won't rub or wash off. Needs only occasional retouch. Select your shade from color chart on outside of each Tintz package. At druggists on guarantee of satisface.

age. At druggists on guarantee of satisfaction or purchase price refunded.

IN 17 MINUTES

haps the most forthright declamerged his personality. But in ration ever made on the screen about the feeling of the Negro AMAZING NEW CREME COLOR SHAMPOO matically. RE-COLORS HAIR own lines for the scene in which he lays down the "house rules" to a new cellmate, Ben Gaz-"One-don't call me Shine.

Two - don't rub my head for luck; I'm not your Uncle Tom. Three-don't expect me to warble, 'Swing Low, Sweet Chariot.' And we'll get along fine."

concerning the cliche attitudes traditionally adopted in attempting to portray him dra-Cast as a convict in Danne-

As a result, the motion pic-nora Prison, Sammy wrote his Gazzara plays John Resko, the man who won celebrity as

LIFE TIME PROTECTION PLUS Congo River, in February. BEAUTY FOR HOME AND AUTO

PROTECT

- DOORWAYS
- PORCHES
- WINDOWS

FROM SUN AND RAIN

No Down Payment Up to 60 Months To Pay

FREE ESTIMATES FL 3-3700 1131 Terry Road

IT WAS HER PLEA TO MANKIND EVERYWHERE

Today the National Council of Negro Women, founded by this great woman calls you in a nationwide crusade to honor her work.

By erecting on public land in the Nation's Capital a Memorial as a symbol of the contribution of the Negro in America over the century since the Emancipation Proclamation as authorized by Congress and the President of the United States.

By building a Bethune Memorial Educational Center honoring all Negro Women.

Give Your Sweetheart Dollar Today! EVERY GIFT RECEIVED AT NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS WILL BE ACKNOWLEDGED

JUST FALL OUT COUPON AND MAIL YOUR GIFT TODAY

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF IEGRO WOMEN Miss Dorothy I. Height, Pres. NATIONAL COUNCIL OF NEGRO WOMEN, Inc. 1318 Vermont Ave., N.W., Waşl $..... to Mary McLeod Bethune Memorial Fund

Rev. Lindsey

(Continued From Page One) you two thirds of the worlds population on the side of the United States in a cold or hot war."

3. The third issue raised by Lindsey was the plight of the small farmer in agriculture. He said the income of the farmer in the second congressional dis-

United Nations..

(Continued From Page One)

UN spokesman said here that Mr. Tshombe had sent a letter to Robert Gardiner, UN Congo chief now in New York for conference with Acting Secretary-General U Thant. The contents of the letter were not disclosed.

The UN in ensuring Mr. Tshombe's departure from Léo-poldville April 18 brought a new climate of cordiality in Elisabethville between the UN and the Katangan Govern-

When central government officials prevented Mr. Tshombe's plane from taking off, Mr. Gar-diner intervened and Nigerian UN troops cleared the runway, allowing the plane to take off.

Mr. Adoula returned to Léopoldville Saturday to face up to he question of what comes ext in his negotiations with Mr. Tshombe. Mr. Adoula had been visiting his native Equator Province. Meanwhile Congolese authorities let a Soviet newsman visit imprisoned Antoine Gizenga to scotch Communist reports that something untoward had befallen the former Eastern Province leader. Georgi Fedyachin of the Soviet news agency Tass reported that Mr. Gizenga is very much alive but much thinner than when he last saw him three months ago. Mr. Fedyachin said Mr. Gizenga complained bitterly that he was being held illegally and demanded the right to plead his case before the Congolese Parliament. He quoted Mr. Gizenga as saying:

"I am still a member of Parliament, and I have parliamentary immunity. I would like the chance to reply to accusations against me in Parliament, the Parliament to which I was elected by the people." The political heir of the lat-

Patrice Lumumba, Mr. Gizenga led a revolt in Oriental Province. No charge has been lodged against him and the government insists he is being held in protective custody. He was transferred to Bula Bemba, an island in the estuary of the Bula Lemba is a narrow strip some two miles long. It consists largely of mangrove

Mr. Fedyachin said Mr. Gizenga lives in a room 9 by 15 feet in a well-guarded twostory building. His meals are brought from a hotel on the mainland, and he usually eats in a glass-enclosed terrace. All windows in the building are covered with barbed wire.

Mr. Fedyachin and Mr. Gizenga had a full beard, grown because "my guards will not give me a razor or scissors." The man who once claimed to be the Congo's rightful Premier also complained that his family could not visit him and that his mail apparently was not being delivered.

Mr. Gizenga also was quoted as saying that his doctor had been arrested and that there were too many mosquitoes on Bula Lemba. When he asked for books and newspapers, he said, he was sent a Moral Rearmament leaflet.

a painter during 19 years of a life sentence in the New York State penitentiary after Franklin D. Roosevelt, then Governor, saved him from the electric chair. Resko's paintings were hanging in such prestige institutions as the New York Museum of Modern Art and the Boston Art Museum when a popular movement which swept the art world got him paroled. In real life, the man Sammy plays was not a Negro, but an Indian whom Resko taught to read and write. The man was released after serving his sentence, but a few months later was back in again - and blaming his teacher.

He had returned to the reservation and written a bad

Co-starred with Gazzara and Sammy in the Allied Artists picture, directed by Millard Kaufman from his own screenplay, are Stuart Whitman, Ray Walston, Vincent Price, Rod Steiger, Broderick Crawford, Dodie Stevens, Jack Kruschen, and Carmen Phillips. Ronald Lubin produced.

HOME INSULATION

Insulate Your Home & Save On Heating. & Air Conditioning Cost YOU ONLY INSULATE ONCE BUT YOU SAVE ON COST, AS LONG AS YOU LIVE IN THE HOUSE FREE ESTIMATES

355-6594

trict is too low and his hours tion WKDL, the Rev. Merrill are too long. A way must be Winston Lindsey called upon all Dean's List For found to increase his income Americans residing in the Secand shorten his working day ond Congressional District to which now ranges from twelve join hands and walk down the fellow citizen, referring to Representative Frank Smith, while he and Lindsey both lived in Greenwood, had the responsibility and the duty as the chief politician of the former third congressional district to speak

sion in as advertisement appearng in the South Reporter, published in Holly Springs, Mr.

Smith never missed a vote on Civil Rights. His every vote on Civil Rights was against Civil and fight against all things that are detremental to Amer-about a condtion where in all

Americans could walk togeth-

Lindsey will appear at a District Wide "Lindsey for Con-

p.m. on Sunday in Clarksdale,

Mississippi. Portions of the pro-in full respect and dignity.

avenue of Freedom with full to sixteen hours a day. The only respect and dignity. reference made to either of the other two candidates in the sec-Rev. Lindsey was addressing ond Congressional District was a District Rally where organiin the area of Voting Rights. zations on the county level were Lindsey said that his former set up for Panola, Lafayette, Yalobusha, DeSoto, Marshall, Benton, Tunica, Coahoma, Quitman, Holmes, Grenada, Bolivar, V. ashington, Sunflower, Leflore and Sharkey Counties. Chairing the meeting and introducing Rev. Lindsey was out for the rights of all citi-Aaron E. Henry, Campaign zens to become qualified voters. He never raised his voice in our Congress Campaign. defense and by his own admis-Rev. Lindsey raised the issues terials sent to countries agroad Rights and consequently against are benefitting from our aid." He then questioned the plight Lindsey closed with a caution of the farmers in the Second that All Americans should unite Congressional District calling ican Democracy. He promised to use his influence to bring er down the Avenue of Freedom sey emphasized. gress Rally" from 3 p.m. to 5:30 Speaking before a standing ties of the district.

over the facilities of radio sta- fairness in all cases involving Lindsey concluded.

Winter Quarter Named At JSC

One hundred and five students have been named to the Dean's List for the Winter Quarter. Leading the list with a 2.81 average is Elwyn M. Grimes, a graduate of Wilkinson County 2.31; Ivory Phillips, 2.30; Noel Training School, Woodville. Henry George Johnson, a graduate of Yazoo City Training Clark Odom, 2.26; Albertredia School, Yazoo City, has a 2.79 average for second place; Evelyn Hall of Coleman High Manager of the Lindsey for School, Greenville, and Brenda Lang of Bay Springs Vocational School, Bay Springs, tie for 2.21; Daisy Bell, Coy Gentry, of Foreign Policy, suggesting a third place with an average of 2.20; Beulah Adams, Thelma policy that would place the ma- 2.78; Annie Pearl Moffett, a Clarke, Sophia Jamison, Calvin graduate of Hill High School, McKinney, James Patterson, Jackson, has a 2.76 average; 2.19; Ruther M. Conner, Charin reach of the "little people." and Ruby Magee, a graduate of lie Gross, 2.18; Rudolph Wilk-Lindsey said, "Too many times Jefferson High School, Colum- ins, Otha Williams, Ralph Rogonly the heads of governments bia, has an average of 2.75.

Dean's List include Amel An- Easterling, Artrie Goodman, derson, 2.69; Curtis L. Flow- 2.13; Gladys Allison, Fred Arto the farmers in our area Lind- Clara Hinton, Lonnie McCallum, room only audience and heard | Finally, Lindsey called for able expediency above integrity lington, and Anna L. Washing-

George Porter, 2.47: Johnny Viverette, Eddie Weewks, 2.44; Pauline Pearson, 2.41 Will Virgie Brocks, Doyle Moffett, Chambliss, Mary Merdith, Tee Jay Robinson, 2.40; Lois D. Stewart, Mary Williams, 2.39; Charles Causey, Reuben Dilworth, 2.38; John Hatchett, 2.37; Margaret Catchings, Vernie Davenport, 2.35; Albert Chandler, 2.33; Paul Campbell, Nila Jones, Gladys January, Mary Sanders, Thompson, 2.29; Morris Anderson, Sonnie Washington, 2.27; M. Harris, Delores McGriff, Mary Taylor, John Nixon, 2.25; Johnnie Mae Hulitt, 2.24; Joe Darden, 2.23; Arthur M. M. Lewanika, Dorothy McDowell, ers 2.17; Roosevelt Fitzgerald, Others appearing on the Dorothy Williams, John Myers, attention to the continuous ers, 2.65; Sarah F. Dickens, rington, Cleve McDowell, James shrinking of cotton acreage for 2.62; Joe M. Ross, 2.61; William Myers, Bertha Younger, 2.11; the area while the state of Cali- Brassfield, 2.60; Sam Cobbins, Mary Brewster, 2.07; Roy Curfornia is steadily gaining cot- 2.59; Osie Brown, 2.56; Roger 14, Mack A. Hayes, Forestine ton acreage. There has to be Ammon, Thomas Byas, Clarice Cusley, Artimese Hobson, 2.06; a way to be of more benefit Clayton, Arthur Williams, 2.50; Robert E. Woodard, 2.05; Harold Bishop, Lizzie M. Funchess, 2.03; George Barnes, Henrietta Lindsey called upon Industry | the courts and the laws of the | Bryant, James Carson, Henry already located in the District land. He called for an end to Caston, Girtha Davis, Shedrick to share the employment oppor- legal segregation, police bru- Dorsey, Opal Ellis, Jessie Evtunities with all qualified citi- tality, and injustice in the ans, Willie Faulkner, Maggie zens and announced his feelings | courts. He also criticized news | Gipson, Minnie Lee Harris, Lola gram will be aired over WKDL toward the necessity of recruit- media that is refusing to carry Haywood, Juanita Matlock, ing Industry for the communi- programs with him on. This James Meredith, Wildred More, type of action places question- Bettye J. Neal, Mae Ruth Wad-

(Continued From Page One) is regarded as another step upward for Negroes in the howling field. She is the female counter part of J. Wilbert Sims of Chicago, outstanding Negro bowler, who was signed

manufacturer of bowling equip-As a bowler, Miss Strickland, who stands 5" 7' and measures 36-26-37, averages 180. Her top efforts was a 278 single and 678 three-game set. She missed qualifying in her first attempt for the NBA-Brunswick class in Cleveland by only a few

by the Brunswick Co., also a

(Continued From Page One) work." Robinson accused President

Kennedy of betraying Negroes in the field of public housing. "Negroes allowed themselves to be charmed by a phone call to Mrs. Martin Luther King," Robinson said.

Robinson, who campaigned for Richard Nixon, denied he is a Republican.

"I am no more of a Republian than you are," he said. 'And I know this is a Democratic stronghold. I vote for the man who will do the most good for Negroes," he said.

Patronize Our Advertisers

Why your dollars work harder in U.S. Savings Bonds

Sometimes getting a good return from your savings dollar means looking beyond the amount of interest you collect.

Take U.S. Savings Bonds, for example.

While this investment does pay a substantial rate of interest, it pays off in another way as well. The money you put into Bonds for your future is used by Uncle Sam to help keep America strong and free.

You get more than money from Savings Bonds. That's why Americans are buying $4½ billion worth a year—and holding them an average of 7 years!

Without a strong, free America, that home you're saving for would offer little comfort. Travel would hold little fun. Without freedom, there'd be little future in saving at all.

While you are saving for the future, why not put your dollars where they'll help keep the future free as well as grow 331/3% in 73/4 years? The place to put them: U.S. Savings Bonds, issued and guaranteed by the United States Government.

USA

The communists threaten to surpass our economy, and prove that communism is better. One way we can keep them wrong is to stay financially strong—as individuals and as a nation.

Buy an EXTRA Bond during the Freedom Bond Drive

Keep freedom in your future with

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

